

Mulidaz-Curtis Wilson

Richard Thomas

Vince Smith

Artists featured in the 2017 TimberWest First Nation Cultural Art Showcase

Do you know a visual artist interested in sharing their art with the world?

TimberWest is once again hosting the First Nation Cultural Art Showcase Program, and we are looking for three artists to represent one of each of the three major language groups on Vancouver Island.

TimberWest
FIRST NATION
CULTURAL ART
SHOWCASE PROGRAM

TIMBERWEST FIRST NATION CULTURAL ART SHOWCASE PROGRAM

THE OPPORTUNITY INCLUDES:

- 8-12 pieces of commissioned art work.
- A two week, or longer, art showcase open to the public.
- An opening reception gala featuring your catalogue of art (to include, but not limited to the TimberWest commissioned art) which you are welcome to sell.
- Media coverage, photography and videography.
- Travel compensation and accommodation for the opening reception gala.
- And many additional perks, and opportunities.

APPLICATIONS:

- In 250 words, or less, please tell us about yourself and the art you create. Please include a photograph of you and your work. You are welcome to submit references.
- Include a sample of your artwork. This can be submitted as a website link, a PDF or JPG files.
- The TimberWest First Nation Art Showcase program includes specific dates that will require the artists to be available to attend events on Vancouver Island. Can you commit to:
 - June 21st.
 - One full week from Monday-Sunday in July or August.
 - Two full days in mid-September.

(Firm dates to be provided once artists selected.)

Deadline for submission is Friday, June 8th.

Submit your application to Art@TimberWest.com.

All applicants will be notified about the selected artists in June.

TimberWest.com

@TimberWest

TimberWestForestCorp

TimberWest.com/news

TimberWest